ALMA 31:38

“Now it came to pass that Alma and his companions did minister unto them, yea, even teaching them the word of God, without any respect of persons. And the Lord did provide for them that they should suffer no manner of afflictions, save it were in the loss of their comfort; and this because of the labor of the church; and he did provide for them that they should not hunger, neither should they thirst; yea, and he also gave them strength, that they should suffer no manner of afflictions, save it were swallowed up in the joy of Christ. Now this was according to the prayer of Alma; and this because he prayed in faith.”

1. CONTEXT & INSIGHTS

“Without respect of persons”

Ministering and teaching everyone equally, regardless of social standing, wealth, background, or perceived worthiness.

“Swallowed up in the joy of Christ”

Discomfort and trial may still exist physically, but Christ's presence and joy completely overshadow the burden.

2. SCRIPTURE ANALYSIS & OBSERVATIONS

1. What specific physical and spiritual needs did the Lord provide for Alma and his companions?
